

Chris Annous

I will ensure we offer the strong, liberal alternative to the Mayor's failures London needs by:

- Running a campaign that unashamedly stands up for liberal values like reforming the Met, strong climate action and our place in Europe.
- Leveraging my skills as a communications professional to get the media coverage we need to ensure Londoners know what our party stands for.
- Using my experience as a researcher for our London Assembly group to scrutinise the mayor effectively.

Lend me your 1st preference to ensure all Londoners know we're the party that stands up for their progressive values.
