Subject: RE: How can we win in London?

After campaigning with Caroline Pidgeon for over 20 years, I know what a loss it is that she is standing down.

Now we need to pull together. To raise our profile in the media so that every Londoner who shares our values, also gives us their vote.

Lib Dem campaigners across the city have asked me to lead our team into the next London elections. With the right approach, I know we can win.

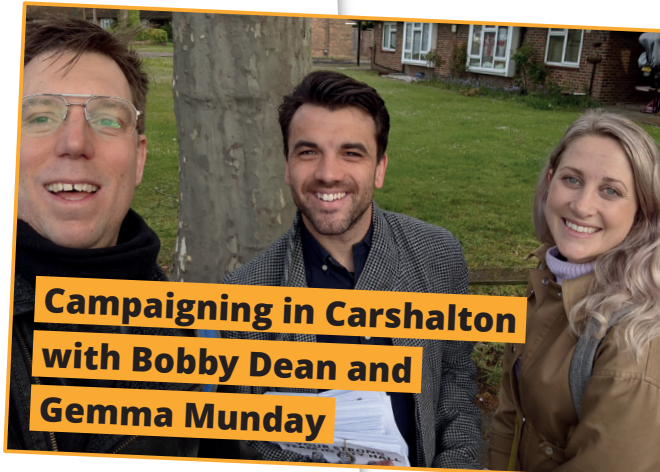

So please, lend me your #1 vote today.

All the best,

Rob
